CAUGHT MONDAY OFF SAMBRO

Capt. Jacobs Asks Permission of Canadians to Buy Salt.

A special dispatch to the TIMES this afternoon states that sch. Helen Miller Gould, Capt. Solomon Jacobs, of this port, put into Halifax, N. S., this forenoon and asked permission from the Dominion government to purchase salt for 400 barrels of mackerel which she had caught off Sambro, N. S., on Monday.
 This is indeed good news and shows that not only will Capt. Jacobs have another big trip when he comes home, but also that there are some good schools on the Cape Shore and that others of the fleet may get fares, although the vessels down there from here will not number over half a dozen sail.
